FOURTH ANNUAL WESTGATE ROCKS NEW YEAR'S EVE

The Only Place Where You Can Ride a Bull, Wear a Kilt and ... Crash a Wedding!

(GLENDALE, ARIZ., Dec. 3, 2009) – The question isn't, "What WILL you do at Westgate on New Year's Eve?" The question is, "What WON'T you do?" Thursday, December 31, 2009, the 4th Annual Westgate Rocks New Year's Eve presented by Miller Lite returns to the Plaza at Westgate City Center. And this year, in addition to riding the bull at Saddle Ranch, singing along with dueling pianos at The Shout! House and raising some hell at Hell's Half Acre, you'll also get to crash a wedding. It doesn't get much better than this!

The happy couple met at midnight last year on the Plaza – just in time for their midnight kiss. One year later, that kiss will be their first as a married couple – and the entire crowd will bear witness. Live entertainment by Rock Lobster and Metalhead. Tickets on sale Saturday, December 5 at ticketmaster.com (ticket price does not include cover charges for individual bars/restaurants). Must be 21 or older.

And for the young and young-at-heart, families will ring in the New Year for free a little earlier in Fountain Park (across from AMC Theatres). Events include live music, entertainment, games, arts and crafts, a magician, caricature artist and much more. The "ball drops" at 10 p.m. in Fountain Park.
