ALL-STAR SUNDAY TO BE HELD AT WESTGATE CITY CENTER

Little League State Championship Kickoff Scheduled for July 19

(GLENDALE, ARIZ., July 6, 2009) – Westgate City Center, in coordination with Little League District 2 and Buca Di Beppo, will host this year’s All-Star Sunday, a kickoff to the Little League State Tournament games. The free event honoring this year’s West Valley Little League players and Little League All-Star teams from the state of Arizona is scheduled for July 19 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The family friendly day is open to the public and will include opening ceremonies, an All-Star parade through Westgate City Center, games, prizes, a dunking tank, face painting, wiffle ball, speed pitch, specials from Westgate restaurants and retailers, and much, much more. The event will culminate with a program on WaterDance Plaza, which includes guest speakers, a Little League All-Star group photo and the Valley’s largest sing-along of “Take Me Out to The Ballgame.”

The City of Glendale will also participate as part of its centennial year celebration, arranging for athletes from all generations to attend the event and sign autographs. The Glendale Police and Fire Departments will also be part of the All-Star Parade.
