

Shiver Me Timbers! Talk Like A Pirate Day Raid at Westgate City Center
September 18 Pirate Event To Jointly Raise Money for Phoenix Children's Hospital

(GLENDALE, Ariz., August 30, 2010) – What are pirate movies rated? Arrrrrr....

Pull out your eye patch and practice your best Davey Jones impersonation, matey because “Talk Like A Pirate Day” is coming to Westgate City Center courtesy of the Arizona Corsaires.

The day's an international tradition that's been around for decades. And despite our soooo 2010 obsession with “Team Edward” and “Team Jacob,” the Corsairs are determined to keep the “Captain Jack Sparrow” fans in full force. And entertaining? Aye! Westgate's adult-oriented event will include a pirate parade through the development, a sword fight, dancers, drummers, mermaids poised by the fountain, wenches (their word) selling drink coins for $2 ... all to help raise loot for Phoenix Children's Hospital (drink coins can be redeemed in participating Westgate restaurants; 25% of the money to be donated to PCH).

So get your booty to Westgate. Talk Like A Pirate Day is right around the plank ... ehem ... corner. And you won't want to miss the self-proclaimed bloodiest group of pirates to sail the desert seas of Arizona.

WHO: Arizona Corsaire Network and Westgate City Center

WHAT: Talk Like A Pirate Day

WHEN: Saturday, September 18, 2010
6 – 11pm

WHERE: Westgate City Center's WaterDance Plaza
Loop 101 and Glendale Avenue

WHY: Because who doesn't need a day to dress like a pirate, not take yourself too seriously, and have a little child-like fun all for a fantastic cause? Not me!

COST: Free

MORE INFO: westgatecitycenter.com or Nicole Traynor: 602.363.2298, ntraynor@ellmanco.com

FOLLOW US:

###